

MEDIA CURV

The Media Curv workstation by Interior Concepts has the perfect mix of design, durability, and function for labs and common areas. Units can be sitting, stool, or standing height, but all offer a great landing spot for people to gather.

Select from many standard designs — including those equipped with casters, locking storage, or power — or customize the workstation to fit your needs. A wide variety of finishes are also available to create a coordinated look throughout the campus.
